BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.
At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1863.

"THE UNION," established in 1814—Whole No. 2,632.
"CHRONICLE," established in 1843—Whole No. 1,011.

FINISHED SEMI-WEEKLY—
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.
See New Advertisements.

Union County Fair—
Wednesday to Friday, Oct. 7, 8 and 9, 1863

Six Weeks' Time to Prepare.
We are informed that—Union county being last on the list, alphabetically, and in order of drawing—the Examining officers will not be able to reach here until in October. So that no drafted man or substitute will be called to leave our county until about the 15th Oct.—two days after the Election. Notice of the days for applying for exemption will be made known to all concerned.

If our information be correct, none need hurry or worry about it, but can take ample time to reflect, and to make all needful preparations of business if they conclude to go.

We have never felt like persuading or discouraging any one as to volunteering, or responding to a call by lot. Under the best information he can obtain, it is the solemn and imperative duty of every man to decide for himself, unaided, and independently. On the one side are duty to country and to good government bequeathed to us by the seven years of toil and blood of our fathers—the perpetuity of legal liberty and of one's home, family and property in peace—the honor and glory of martial array—the change of life, and pleasing and joyful memories in after days of noble efforts in the best of causes. On the other hand are the extra exposures of limb, health, and life—the deprivations and hardships of real service—and the possibility of defeat, extreme sufferings and death.

Doubtless, 200,000 fresh men, now could subdue the insurgents. It is therefore an eventful, turning point. Should the Rebels stand long enough to get foreign aid, one million more—every arm-bearing man among us—may be necessary to preserve fair America from the fate of Ireland, of Poland, and of Mexico.

Republican institutions for the world, are on trial, now and here. Happy for us, and for all mankind, if the majority of drafted men have the discernment, the consciousness of real physical ability, and the brave heart, to meet the issue, and to aid in closing the greatest of contests since the first rebels were cast out of heaven.

N. B. Since writing the above, Deputy Marshall RITZER informs us that Union county will have from the 15th to the 20th of October to hear appeals, each district on a particular day, which will be stated to every man in the notice he receives.

The Three Live Generals.

Since Gen. Meade whipped Lee at Gettysburg, and chased him into the Calpepper region, the Copperheads claim Meade as a Roman Catholic, and a Democrat. Both allegations are false—he is an Episcopalian church member—was always a Whig in politics, and supports the policy of the Administration.

Gen. Grant was never a politician—but favored Douglas in 1860—all his family, Republicans—and he is a warm supporter of President Lincoln's policy and of the Republican Congressmen and Governor of Illinois.

Gen. Rosecrans warned Vallandigham—with an oath—that if he ever came into his hands, he would hang him for a traitor.

"The Hour, and its Duties."
Upon this theme, J. WALKER JACKSON, of Harrisburg, will (by invitation) address the people of Lewisburg and vicinity on Friday evening, Aug. 28, at Independent Hall. Mr. Jackson is pastor of a M. E. Church in Harrisburg, and stands well among all people as an honest, impressive speaker on the great content of the day.

The ladies are invited to attend.

Let it be Remembered

That this wicked Rebellion would have been crushed out, months ago, and neither the first nor second draft would have been necessary, if it had not been for the aid given to the Rebels by their Northern sympathizers and supporters. There is not a soldier in the Army who has served for the last two years, that will not corroborate this assertion.

The prolongation of the war has sacrificed at least ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND LIVES, created an additional debt of HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, and filled the land with widows and orphans.

We challenge any honest man to contradict these assertions.—Minors Jour.

An exasperated shepherd in Milton is said to have "read out" of his church a young lady for calling him a Copperhead! This is another specimen of "free speech" in this party. "We don't know which most to admire in this—the clerical dignity, to administer charity, or the gallantry of the exasperated "reverend."

SAD AFFAIR.—Two young women, and three children, took a boat for a ride on a pond in Abington township, Luzerne county; the boat proved leaky, and all sunk and were drowned in sight of some who could not save them. They were children and guests of Mr. Dewey.

The Old stand-by Tailor, John B. Miller, has first on hand the latest styles for the coming seasons.

The 51st Pa. Vol.

We are indebted to Cha's P. McFaddin, clerk in A. A. Gen. Dept., Milldale, 3d inst., for the following copy of a complimentary notice of the Corps which includes the above Regiment. Our readers will remember that Col. Hartman commands this regiment, in which are the Companies of J. M. Linn, G. H. Hasenpflug, and the Walls Guards, from Union county.

SPECIAL ORDERS,
No. 207.

In returning the 9th Army Corps to its former Command, it is with pleasure that the General Commanding acknowledges its valuable services in the campaign just closed. Arriving at Vicksburg, and taking position to hold at bay Johnston's army then threatening the forces investing the City, it was ready and eager to assume the aggressive at any moment. After the fall of Vicksburg, it formed part of the army which drove Johnston from his position near the Big Black River into his entrenchments at Jackson, and after a siege of eight days, compelled him to fly in disorder from the Mississippi Valley.

The endurance, valor, and general good conduct of the 9th Corps are admired by all, and its valuable co-operation in achieving the final triumph of the campaign, is gratefully acknowledged by the Army of the Tennessee.

Maj. General Parks will cause the different regiments and batteries of his command to inscribe upon their banners and guidons, "Vicksburg" and "Jackson."

By order of
Maj. Gen. U. S. GRANT.
T. S. BOWMAN, A. A. Genl.

We have received from Capt. Linn, from Martin G. Reed, and from others, long and interesting sketches of their march from the Mississippi River (near Vicksburg) to the Pearl River (on which is Jackson) and of their labors, sufferings from heat and drought, and of the entire success of the expedition, with very little loss. As the general result is well known, we regret that we have not room for the details. Our three Companies were all more or less engaged, and did their full duty. They have since come up the river, and are now so suppose resting in the more mountainous region of S. E. Kentucky. It was "awful hot" down in Mississippi—water very scarce, and covered with a green scum at that—heavy marches—but then the corn was good, and peaches were glorious!

Union Meeting at Washington, in North Carolina.

NEWBERN, Aug. 13.—A meeting of the citizens of North Carolina, representing every county in the First and Second Congressional Districts, and a portion of the Third, was held at Washington on the 11th inst. The 1st North Carolina (Union) regiment, which is stationed at that point, participated in the meeting.

Addresses were made and resolutions adopted expressing a sympathy with the great Conservative party of North Carolina; declaring that an energetic prosecution of the war in this department is the only means by which the Union sentiment in the interior of the State can be made practically useful in restoring her to National jurisdiction; asking the Government aid for this purpose; accusing the Rebel Government of perfidy and cruelty toward North Carolina, and declaring her people absolved from further obligation to sustain it; placing the responsibility of the destruction of Slavery upon Jeff. Davis and his co-operators against the Federal Government; expressing the belief that North Carolina will find ample compensation in the blessings of free labor for the present inconvenience of emancipation; rejoicing in the recent Union victory at the Kentucky election; denouncing copperheadism at the North, and commending the ability and patriotism of the Administration in the conduct of the war, especially that displayed in the national currency, originated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

State Elections.
The following list gives the time when the several State Elections are to be held this fall:

Vermont	September 1
California	September 2
Maine	September 14
Ohio	October 13
Pennsylvania	October 13
Massachusetts	November 3
New York	November 3
Wisconsin	November 5
Delaware	November 10
Iowa	November 10
Minnesota	November 10

The Sunbury Gazette "wants to know" whether a man "who has strength enough to travel and stamp the county, night and day, making speeches in which the Government is venomously abused—requiring considerable physical exertion, and giving evidence of soundness in wind and limbs—is entitled to exemption on the ground of physical debility?" If he be also a copperhead candidate for Assembly, "if the Court understand herself—and she think she do—it are," for he betrays a weak head and a diseased heart.

Rally at New Berlin.

Friday Evening, 28th inst., is fixed upon by the friends of Unconditional Union, in New Berlin and vicinity, for a General Meeting, and Speakers are engaged. A good turn-out is expected from the Townships.

What Substitutes will Receive.

The Rochester, N. Y. Express has the following relative to the pay of persons who may enlist as substitutes of drafted men. It tells its own story:

"The figures below are given in the event that the war lasts three years, but if sooner brought to a close (as we earnestly pray it may) the average pay per month will exceed the amount stated in proportion to the brevity of service:

United States bounty	$100
State bounty	75
Substitution fee	800
Three years' pay at $13 per month	468
Clothing for three yrs., at $10 per year	120
Three years' board, at $100 per year	300

Total receipts $1,368

"This sum divided into thirty-six mo's makes $38 per month; which, subdivided into the twenty-six working days in the month, makes $1.46 per day. No allowance is made for Doctor's bills, which are to be paid for the Union soldier nothing. What ordinary workman would not consider this good pay on a contract for three years?"

"If the war lasts but a year—and every intelligent candid person believes it will close before that time—the substitute will receive for his year's work $773, or $61.41 per month, and $2.47 per day! If you do not believe this, figure for yourself."

(The above it is to be seen is for N. Y. State.)

OUTFIT.—Bivouacs arms, each soldier receives, on entering service, from Government, a coat, pants, two shirts, two pairs of drawers, two pairs stockings, a pair boots (stout shoes), blanket, knapsack, and canteen. He has a plenty, if he will only take care of them—in fact, other nations think our soldiers are rather overladen.

By the Official Report on our last page, it will be seen that the University at Lewisburg is about entering upon renewed efforts for promoting its prosperity. The General Agent is one of the first young men who came here to study—is an earnest, persevering man—and leaves a deeply attached people because his heart is in this work.

The new Principal of the Female Institute is a lady, well recommended, from Hagerstown and Selingsgrove, where she was a successful and popular teacher for some years.

Thursday, the 24th of Sept., is the opening of the Fall Term.

For cleanliness and good fare, we can safely recommend the GIRARD HOUSE, of Philadelphia, as being unsurpassed by any house in the country. The homelike feeling enjoyed in this establishment, by those who like polite, unobtrusive attention, most indeed be appreciated. We feel confident that any one who has sojourned at the Girard, will as cheerfully and honestly recommend it to the public as we do.

The "dignified" Judge Woodward is button-holing and begging men to vote for him. He meets some rebuffs he did not expect.

C. D. Brewer, Esq., has all the Blanks for Exemptions.

Meeting of War Democrats in Indiana. INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.

A very large and enthusiastic meeting of War Democrats was held here to-night. All parts of the State were fully represented. Gen. Nathan Kimball presided, and Maj. Gen. John McClelland, Gen. Dumont and Hon. Henry Sevier were among the speakers.

Letters were received from Hon. Lewis Cass, Gen. Logan, and Daniel S. Dickinson, all of whom expressed their sympathy with the objects of the convention.

Resolutions were adopted favoring a vigorous prosecution of the war, sustaining the Administration in all its efforts to put down the rebellion, and denouncing the Agent, Auditor and Treasurer of the State for their willingness to repudiate the public debt and sacrifice the honor and credit of the State for partisan purposes.

Railroad Politics.

The popularity of our Governor is becoming greater as the time approaches for the ballot-box to test the loyalty of the citizens of the Old Keystone State. Wednesday afternoon a vote was taken on the train of cars coming from Philadelphia, by a well known gentleman of this community. None but qualified voters were permitted to cast a vote, and the following is the result: 46 votes for Curtin, and 14 for Woodward. Two soldiers on the train remarked that they were disfranchised, but if they were permitted to vote, it would not be hard to guess their choice, as they carried their badges on their uniforms. This raised the ire of an old Copperhead, who angrily said, "Just like them—none but d—d Abolitionists would go to war against our own brethren."

COL SHAW, of Boston, was a member of one of the richest families there, and was well educated, with every promise of life before him. He commanded the colored regiment who did such desperate work at Fort Wagner, before Charleston, and was killed—the Rebels boasting that they buried twenty-five of his brave, smart soldiers, over his remains. This they did as an insult—it will appear in history to his honor and their shame.

Words of Truth and Sobriety.

A year ago, our people were told, that by voting the ticket of the so-called Democratic party, they would prevent the draft which was then pending. The so-called democracy triumphed. The draft was not thereby averted, but the necessity for future drafts was increased by the strength and encouragement which the result of the elections last fall gave the Rebels. Suppose that Pennsylvania in 1862 had given fifty thousand majority for the Administration, an overwhelming Union State Legislature, and a large majority of Union Congressmen; suppose that New York and the other great Northern States had done the same; what hope or encouragement would the Rebels have been able to extract from such a display of unity and determination on the part of the North? They would have wilted under it—it would have unnerved and unmanned them. But when they saw, as they did one year ago, that the party opposing the war had triumphed at the polls in the leading States of the North, their arms were strengthened for further resistance, believing, as they naturally would, that these elections indicated a disposition in the people of the North to give up the contest. Is it to be wondered at that further drafts must be made to meet this increased vigor of the rebellion produced by the so-called democratic triumphs at the polls?

We had occasion one year ago to represent that the true way of preventing drafts and diminishing taxation, was for the people to give the Government their undivided support. We warned the Democrats of the utter folly of attempting to vote down drafts, when the very effect of their votes was to prolong the war. But a miserable set of office hunters, who, to obtain office would keep up an organization that would prolong the war indefinitely, duped their followers into the belief that a democratic victory at the polls would bring peace to the country. It was getting them deeper into the mire. If there is any democrat smarting from the present draft, let him ask himself how much he has, by his support and encouragement, aided the Government in bringing the war to a speedy conclusion? Let him ask himself how many votes he has cast which were calculated to make the Rebels believe that the Administration would not be supported by the people in the prosecution of the war? Let him solemnly consider whether the course of Gov. Seymour, his opposition to furnishing troops, and the riots of his "noble hearted friends," are calculated to shorten the duration of this war—whether they encourage or discourage the Rebels? If he is a candid man he can not but perceive that the course his party has been led to adopt by its leaders has been very far from helping to bring this war to an end, and he may infer to what extent they are chargeable with the expenditure of life and money caused by the continuance of the rebellion.

It is, to a great extent, in the hands of the voters to determine whether this war shall close in six months' time, or whether it shall be protracted till the 4th of March 1865, with all the expense and drafts between this time and then. More than two years' experience should teach the masses of the people that this war can not be ended by acting, speaking, conspiring, and voting against the Government, but only by acting with it. Gentlemen who compose the so-called democratic party, will you have peace, or will you have drafts and increased taxes? It is for you to determine by your votes.—Sunbury Gazette, (Union Dnc.)

Illitic Combination.—There is reason to believe the enemies of the Government are now engaged in a wide-spread conspiracy to nullify the draft, by persuading all they can not to go. Some they get to "skeddadle," as they say openly in their papers; others they get to move away; others to pay the $300—any way so that Government gets no men, and the Rebels can have another chance to rally. It is feared that many good friends of the Government have been unthinkingly brought into these arrangements—not intending to harm, but they will on reflection see that such is the result. All the Money in the world could not keep back Lee's army—Men must be had. The Copperheads tried the mob, in New York, but, failing in that, they now try every other mode so that no men should be raised, our present armies be captured or driven back, and all be lost we have gained. They want the war to last until the Presidential Election, no matter how much blood and treasure it may cost the people, if a few leaders can gain office.

The corner stone of the new St. Peter's Lutheran and Reformed church, near Paxinos, on the site of what is usually called the Blue Church, will be laid with appropriate exercises in English and German, on Saturday, September 5th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

BOSTON, Aug. 21.—Quite a severe hurricane, accompanied by hail and rain, and thunder and lightning, passed over this city about six o'clock last evening, doing considerable damage in east Boston.

A man in Kirkwood, N. Y., has five sons, three of them living in that town, one in Binghamton, and one in Elmira; and they were all drafted.

Heavy Bank Robbery.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 20.

The Southern Bank of Kentucky, in Carrollton, Carroll county, was robbed at half-past one o'clock this morning, by about sixteen men in uniform, who represented themselves as belonging to Scott's Rebel Cavalry. They were first discovered by Mr. Crawford, cashier, who lives in the rear of the bank, on whom they fired, driving him back into his house. After removing all the money from the vault, and burning the papers therein, they mounted their horses and started off in the direction of Owen county. The amount of money stolen is $100,000 in gold and silver and $30,000 in paper money. Every effort is being made to capture the robbers.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 20.—Two refugees arrived in Norfolk to day from Richmond, who were born in Canada. They report that the rebel government is terribly frightened about Charleston, and say if it is taken all is lost. A guard is kept about the residence of Jeff. Davis night and day.

Latest News

Through Rebel sources (the Richmond Whig) we have good news from Charleston. Fort Sumpter is rapidly crumbling under the terrible 200 pounders, and is practically defenseless already, being able to return fire only at long intervals. Gov. Pickens has issued a proclamation for the immediate removal of all non-combatants from Charleston. The dispatches say that the defense of the harbor does not depend mainly upon Fort Sumpter—that even if Sumpter falls, the harbor may still be held. The city is to be defended "street by street and house by house, as long as a foot of earth is left." This news seems to settle the fate of the cradle of treason. Charleston is doomed, and we may expect soon to hear that the great work is finished.

We have some ugly news from Kansas. That murdering highwayman, Quantrell has managed to surprise the town of Lawrence with his guerrillas, and burned nearly the whole of it, probably killing a number of the inhabitants. Gen. Leao was in the town and is probably captured. There were no troops there, and the people seem to have been taken so suddenly that no resistance could be made. It is about time for Quantrell's career to close; he has never been anything better than a murderer, and should have been treated as such from the first.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.—The Gazette has received private advices from the Army of the Cumberland up to the 17th inst., which state that a movement was in progress, and the public may soon look for important news from East Tennessee.

Examinations of Com. School Teachers.

An examination of Teachers will be held in the following Districts, on the days mentioned. The Winter Term of the Public Schools will soon open, and all applicants will do well to prepare for their work. All may not be successful in securing situations, and therefore it is desirable for each one to be able to secure as good a testimonial of fitness as he or she can. As several villages in the price of liberty, so diligent labor is the only sure means of success as a teacher. Examinations to begin punctually at 9 o'clock in the morning, and a failure in this point is a bad omen for an applicant. Directors and parents are expected to be present.
